Determine the force due to hydrostatic pressure exerted on the front face of the following trough if the trough is full of water. Assume that the front face has the shape of a semicircle surmounted by an isosceles trapezoid. The height of the trapezoidal portion of the front façade is 7 m.